- There are about 3,000 reserve officers living in tents on the outskirts of Sofia who are undergoing courses of advanced training. It is reported that they have recently been joined by Soviet officers. These Soviet officers arrived during the latter part of July.
- 2. On 8 August, new individual draft calls were issued for Bulgarian reservists. It is not yet known whother these reservists are officers or enlisted men.
- The barracks of 1 and 6 Infantry Regiments of 1 Division of Sofia are empty at the present time.
- 4. Units (unnamed) of 3 Army of Shumen are reported to be moving toward the Yugoslav-Bulgarian border.
- 5. During the latter part of July there was a wave of arrests and family displacements in the region immediately north of the Greek border. Three hundred families were moved from the lievrokop area to an unknown destination in the Northern part of Bulgaria.
- This mobilization call excludes those living along the Bulgarian-Greek frontier, but includes those from the rest of Bulgaria.

6. Three age groups of classes 1905-1908 have been called to report for service.
